I'm an 8th-semester student seeking a Developer role with a strong focus on ASP.NET Core. I began my development journey with React.js and have spent the past year specializing in .NET Core, including a production-level internship at Crystal Solutions, where I worked with Clean Code Architecture. In addition to web development, I've built a React Native app (KrishiSanchar) and am proficient in SQL, Git, and team collaboration. I've also hosted multiple projects and maintain a 3.0 GPA academically.
